Gerard McDermott KC, Outer Temple Chambers

Gerard has had an inspirational career predominately in the field of Personal Injury and Medical Malpractice and has a significant and loyal nationwide following. He is ranked as a Star Individual in Chambers & Partners 2021 who describe him as a "pre-eminent silk who is one of the finest personal injury barristers on the circuit." The majority of his caseload involves catastrophic injuries of the utmost severity such as spinal cord injury and brain injury. He is a Vice-President of the SIA. Nik Hartley, CEO calls him "a true ambassador for our cause across the legal profession. So many young rising stars in the profession have come to SIA to support or help us and have added that their inspiration has been Gerard."

Will Young, Outer Temple
Chambers

Will's practice is divided primarily between personal injury, clinical negligence and related employment claims. His personal injury practice increasingly consists of catastrophic brain and spinal injury cases, in which he is a highly-regarded junior, working with a number of silks in chambers. His cases as sole counsel involve a wide range of multi-track personal injury actions in the County Court and High Court. He also appears at inquests, and has a particular interest in personal injury claims with a cross-border aspect to them.

Lauren Young, Dorset
Orthopaedic

Lauren joined Dorset Orthopaedic in March 2021 and pioneers the physio service at the London Clinic in Egham. Lauren spent 10 years working in NHS at Frimley Park Hospital running the amputee physio service and has thoroughly valued the opportunity to help patients regain their mobility. Lauren has recently completed her Master's Degree in amputee rehab and is looking forward to helping patients through each step of their rehab journey with Dorset Orthopaedic.

Matthew Hughes, Dorset
Orthopaedic

Matt joined Dorset Orthopaedic in 2001 after graduating from the University of Salford with a degree in prosthetics and orthotics. He began his career with Dorset as a clinician treating both prosthetic and orthotic clients, developing a particular interest in limb salvage, paediatric and Osseo integration cases. Matt became Managing Director at Dorset Orthopaedic in 2019. He remains passionate about his clinical work and helping patients return to improved levels of comfort, mobility and independence.
